Reaching Heights Summer Music Camp

June 8-13, 2020 at Cleveland Heights High School

Elementary and Middle school instrumental music students are invited to spend a fun-filled week exploring music at the Reading Heights Summer Music Camp. Campers will perform in an orchestra and in chamber groups, learn music theory, and participate in an elective of jazz, ukulele, percussion, or chorus. Cleveland Heights-University Heights music faculty, community musicians, and college and high school students provide individualized support and expert coaching and instruction. Campers make great music, and have fun with friends from across the CH-UH school district.

Eligibility: Reaching Heights Summer Music Camp serves students enrolled in the 5th-8th grades during the 2019-2020 school year who live in the Cleveland Heights-University Heights school district and who have at least two years experience in their school instrumental music program.
